POWER AND DATA CORPORATION PTY LTD

Power & Data Corporation Pty Ltd (PDC) have been successfully working with Cableaway since 2013, as a strategic partner for the development of our Mainline Power Track System business in Australia and New Zealand. Cableaway have been an excellent company to work with as our logistics and distribution partner in the region. The "solutions" focus of their business has also enabled us to realise significant projects where specific application engineering or special assembly services were required. Cableaway has always been quick to propose effective solutions that fit the bill, achieving commercially practicable and mutually beneficial outcomes for both us and our clients.
